New York Spaces reaches home design professionals who are instrumental in the specification decisions of their clients. This influential group consists of interior designers, architects, landscapers, contractors, kitchen and bath designers, and real estate professionals. These professional design influencers regularly read New York Spaces because it provides them with page after page of fresh and innovative design inspiration and resources that leads them to create magnificent spaces.

New York Spaces has formed strategic alliances with the most influential trade associations to ensure that their members receive every issue of the magazine—and see your advertising message. Those associations include:

- American Institute of Architects AIA
- American Society of Interior Designers ASID
- Association of Professional Landscape Designers APLD
- Designers Lighting Forum DLF
- Interior Design Society IDS
- International Interior Design Association IIDA
- National Association of the Remodeling Industry NARI
- National Association of Home Builders NAHB
- Real Estate Board of New York REBNY

“What I like most about Spaces is that it’s New York specific. I like seeing design projects in and about the metro area, including new buildings and installations. I also appreciate references for local suppliers, sources and vendors.”

—Roderick N. Shade / Roderick N. Shade, Inc.

“I’ve very much enjoyed New York Spaces... its feature stories show us regional treasures we might not otherwise see. And the photography does a great job conveying the ambiance of very special places.”

—Michael Graves / Michael Graves & Associates

“Spaces is quintessential New York... [it’s] a great resource for those of us who live and work here.”

—Alexa Hampton / Mark Hampton Inc.
